

Designing a Virtual Team Alliance

Synopsis

Team dynamics and relationships have changed rapidly now that we are all working virtually. The boundaries between professional and personal life are blurred, as team members create home offices and balance caring for their family with staying focused on the job. At a time where we are forced to keep our distance, this 90 minute session will support teams in designing an alliance on how to keep working effectively in the virtual world; deepening connections, enhancing collaboration and becoming more productive.

Outcomes:

- Understand why making agreements about how we are going to work together is crucial for team effectiveness and a healthy culture
- Feel enhanced connection and trust within the team, leading to more engaged meetings and conversations
- Have clarity on ways of working together virtually so everyone stays on track
- Created a shared responsibility for team culture and actions, leading to better results
- Know how to keep the alliance alive and use it to leverage team collaboration
