

Certification Programme

Become qualified to use Emergenetics® and embed it in your organisation.

Certification maximises the potential of any organisation by equipping you with the knowledge, skills and tools to integrate Emergenetics into your existing processes and create long lasting impact for clients, colleagues and teams alike.

Outcomes

This programme empowers attendees to:

Understand, explain and implement the Emergenetics approach and the scientific foundation of the model

Deliver the signature 'Meeting of the Minds' team workshop and debrief Emergenetics Profiles with confidence

Integrate Emergenetics into your existing learning initiatives, processes and day-to-day work

Improve the performance of teams and organisations using the power of cognitive diversity

Develop customised development solutions using the unique Emergenetics approach to thinking and behaviour

Evolve the culture of your organisation using the positive, strengths-based language of Emergenetics

Who should attend?

Emergenetics Certification is designed for those looking to make an impact on the way individuals, teams and organisations communicate and collaborate. It is ideal for HR and learning professionals who are interested in thinking differently about how they approach people development, as well as those looking to add new tools and knowledge to their skill set.

What's on the agenda?

Split into brain friendly chunks of learning spread over two months, the certification programme equips you with everything you need to immediately start using Emergenetics.

The programme consists of five, live online workshops and a two-day face-to-face residential, all led by an Emergenetics Master Trainer. Our next certification programme will start on 1 October 2020 with the following schedule.

What resources and support will I receive?

- An Emergenetics Certification Manual and Facilitation Guide complete with exercises, detailed instructions and ideas
- PowerPoint presentation slides ready for both face-to-face and virtual workshop delivery
- Practical activity templates, handouts and resources that can be used immediately
- Access to and training on the Emergenetics+ online system to manage and organise your groups' Profile reports, courses and eLearning
- Ongoing support from the team to help as much or as little as you need
- Shared best practice, ideas and experiences from the global network of Emergenetics Associates
- Regular learning and new resources to keep developing your knowledge and skills
- Marketing Materials to help you make the business case for Emergenetics
